Five Connected Teachings for Growing in Christlike Character

PREPARE → TILL → PLANT → NOURISH → PRODUCE

VIDEO 1

Preparing the Ground

The Need for Character Growth

Key Scripture: Psalm 32:9

“Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle...” — RSV

Main Thought

Before we can expect lasting results, we must pay attention to the condition of our lives.

Understanding, wisdom, and knowledge establish a strong foundation. Proverbs 24:3–4 connects wisdom with building, understanding with establishing, and knowledge with filling. Results_Part 17_Site

Character growth requires intentional attention.

We can be busy without being productive.

The world provides countless distractions, but character development requires us to stop and examine what is actually being developed within us. Results_Part 17_Site

Teaching Point

Character growth does not happen accidentally.

We must make a decision to give attention to our lives.

Ask Yourself

- What am I developing in my character?
- Am I becoming more Christlike?
- Am I busy, or am I actually becoming productive?
- Am I allowing God's Word to establish my life?

Transition to Video 2

Once the ground has been identified, it must be tilled.

VIDEO 2

Tilling the Land

The Process of Character Growth

Key Scripture: Proverbs 12:11

“He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits is lacking in sense and is without understanding.” — AMP

Spiritually speaking, tilling our life is an ongoing process of character development.

A farmer cannot neglect the ground and expect a productive harvest.

If the process is delayed:

- The ground becomes compressed.
- Weeds can become entangled.
- Productivity is reduced.

The same principle is applied to our lives.

Character Growth Requires:

1. Plowing steadily

Give attention to your life.

2. Scattering the seed

Plant God's Word.

3. Proper cultivation

Improve, prepare, promote growth, form, refine, feed, train, care for, and enrich. Results_Part 17_Site

All three require:

Consistency + Time + Decision

Teaching Point

Don't become discouraged because character growth takes time.

Start today to have something tomorrow. Results_Part 17_Site

Transition to Video 3

Once the ground is tilled, the seed must be planted—and the seed has a process of growth.

VIDEO 3

The Seed and the Harvest

Understanding the Stages of Character Growth

Key Scripture: Mark 4:26–29

Jesus describes the progression:

First — the blade

Then — the head

Then — the full grain

Then — the harvest Results_Part 17_Site

This gives us an important picture of character growth.

Character Growth Is Progressive.

You may not see the finished product today.

But something may already be happening beneath the surface.

Don't despise the process.

Growth can be gradual.

Maturity can be gradual.

Character can be developed gradually.

The important thing is to remain faithful to the process.

Teaching Point

Growth requires patience and consistency.

God's Word is the seed, and cultivated character ultimately produces fruit.

VIDEO 4

Nourished for Growth

Jesus, the Bread of Life

Key Scriptures: John 6:51, 57–58

Jesus said:

“I am the living bread which came down from heaven.” — John 6:51

The teaching connects Proverbs 12:11's promise of being “satisfied with bread” with Jesus, the Living Bread. Results_Part 17_Site

This is a crucial part of character growth.

We aren't simply trying to improve ourselves through human effort.

We need spiritual nourishment.

The teaching emphasizes:

- Spend time with Jesus.
- Be nourished by Jesus.
- Use the Bread—Jesus—in all areas of life. Results_Part 17_Site

The Three Tilling Principles

PLOW STEADILY

PLANT GOD'S WORD

CULTIVATE CONSISTENTLY

And Jesus provides the nourishment necessary for the growth.

Teaching Point

What we continually feed will influence what grows.

VIDEO 5

A Teachable Heart

Willing, Obedient, Available, and Diligent

This final video brings the entire series together.

Key Scripture: Proverbs 4:3–5

“Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live... Get wisdom; get insight.”

The word “tender” is described as meaning soft—not weak, but sensitive, responsive, and receptive. Willing Obedient Available and ...

For character growth, we need a heart that is:

WILLING

Willing to receive God's instruction.

Isaiah 1:19 connects willingness and obedience with eating the good of the land. Willing Obedient Available and ...

OBEDIENT

It isn't enough to hear God's Word.

We must hold it in our hearts and apply it. Willing Obedient Available and ...

AVAILABLE

We must remain open to God's instruction and the revelation of the Holy Spirit.

The teaching points to 1 Corinthians 2:9–10 and the Holy Spirit's role in revealing the things of God. Willing Obedient Available and ...

DILIGENT

Psalm 119:4 calls us to keep God's Word diligently.

Diligence involves consistent study, meditation, and application. Willing Obedient Available and Punctual.

THE COMPLETE FIVE-VIDEO JOURNEY

1. PREPARE

Recognize the need for character growth.

2. TILL

Give consistent attention to your life.

3. PLANT

Put God's Word into your heart.

4. NOURISH

Feed continually on Jesus, the Bread of Life.

5. PRODUCE

Allow cultivated character to produce lasting results.

THE BIG IDEA

Character Growth Is a Process—Not an Event.

We prepare the ground.

We till our lives.

We plant God's Word.

We remain patient through the stages of growth.

We nourish ourselves through Jesus.

We remain willing, obedient, available, punctual, and diligent.

And as we consistently cultivate what God has placed within us, character begins to produce fruit.

The original character-development material describes the goal as long-lasting results and connects character development with becoming fruitful, believable, and effective. Results_Part 17_Site

FINAL CHALLENGE

Don't just ask, "What am I learning?"

Ask:

"What is growing in me?"

Because what we consistently cultivate today can produce lasting results tomorrow.
