

THE LIFESTYLE OF A ROYAL PRAYER GUARD

A Life Centered on Prayer, God's Presence, and His Glory

The lifestyle of a Royal Prayer Guard is to help make God's house "a house of prayer for all peoples."

A Royal Prayer Guard does not simply pray occasionally—prayer becomes a way of life.

We come before God with faith, believing Him, trusting Him, and seeking His presence. When we pray, we should believe God to experience the pleasure of knowing we are participating in what He desires.

As the famous statement from Chariots of Fire expresses:

"When I run, I feel His pleasure."

In the same way:

"When I pray, I want to feel His pleasure."

Prayer is not merely an obligation.

Prayer is an opportunity to meet with God, believe God, and participate in His purposes.

THE ROYAL PRAYER GUARD LIFESTYLE

1. PRAY

Make prayer a consistent part of everyday life.

2. BELIEVE

Approach God with faith, trusting Him to hear and respond according to His will.

3. SEEK HIS PRESENCE

Prayer is more than presenting requests—it is developing a relationship and fellowship with God.

4. EXPERIENCE HIS PLEASURE

Pray with the confidence that God delights when His people seek Him.

5. PRAY FOR HIS GLORY

The ultimate focus of our prayers is not simply what we want, but God's glory and His purposes.

OUR LIFESTYLE STATEMENT

I am a Royal Prayer Guard.
Prayer is not merely something I do.
Prayer is a lifestyle I live.
I will believe God, seek His presence,
pray for His glory, and help make His house
a house of prayer for all peoples.

A LIFE CENTERED ON PRAYER, GOD'S PRESENCE, AND HIS GLORY

Isaiah 56:7 (AMP)
“All these I will bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on My altar; for My house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

*“When I run,
I feel His pleasure.”*
(Chariots of Fire)

*When I pray,
I want to feel His pleasure.*
