

The Heart vs. the Computer!

This insightful prayer focus is needed daily. In today's technology-driven world, it's crucial to maintain a strong connection with God's Word and to ensure that our interactions with technology reflect His teachings. Here's a concise summary and practical guide.

Main Theme:

Writing God's Word in or on our hearts

Key Scriptures:

- Psalm 33:18 (NKJV): "Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, On those who hope in His mercy..."
- Psalm 45:1 (NKJV): "My heart is overflowing with a good theme; I recite my composition concerning the King; My tongue is the pen of a ready writer."
- Jeremiah 8:8 (NKJV): "How can you say, 'We are wise, And the law of the LORD is with us'? Look, the false pen of the scribe certainly works falsehood."

Simple Insight:

Our tongue is the pen that will write on our hearts. We must be careful what we say.

Five Confessions of Faith:

1. "My tongue is the pen to write on my heart."
2. "I will be very careful about what I write on people's hearts."
3. "I will be alert to who is writing on my heart." (Consider the impact of social media)
4. "I will ask the Father in Jesus' name to help my pen (tongue) to write His Word on people's heart, including my own."
5. "My tongue is the pen of a ready, diligent, and skillful writer."

Practical Steps for Prayer and Daily Life:

1. Keep God's Word in the center of the heart:
 - Reference: Proverbs 4:21
 - "Do not let them depart from your eyes; Keep them in the midst of your heart."
2. Value God's Word more than any device or technology:
 - Prioritize scripture and spiritual growth over technological distractions.

3. Determine to hide God's Word in your heart:

- Make a conscious effort to memorize and meditate on scripture with application.

4. Set an example for children:

- Demonstrate to children the importance of hiding God's Word in their hearts through daily practice and living testimony.

By focusing on these principles, we can navigate the complexities and distractions of modern technology while remaining steadfast in our faith. Writing God's Word on our hearts and speaking it with our tongues can help us maintain spiritual integrity and positively influence those around us.
